

Beaumanor Hall

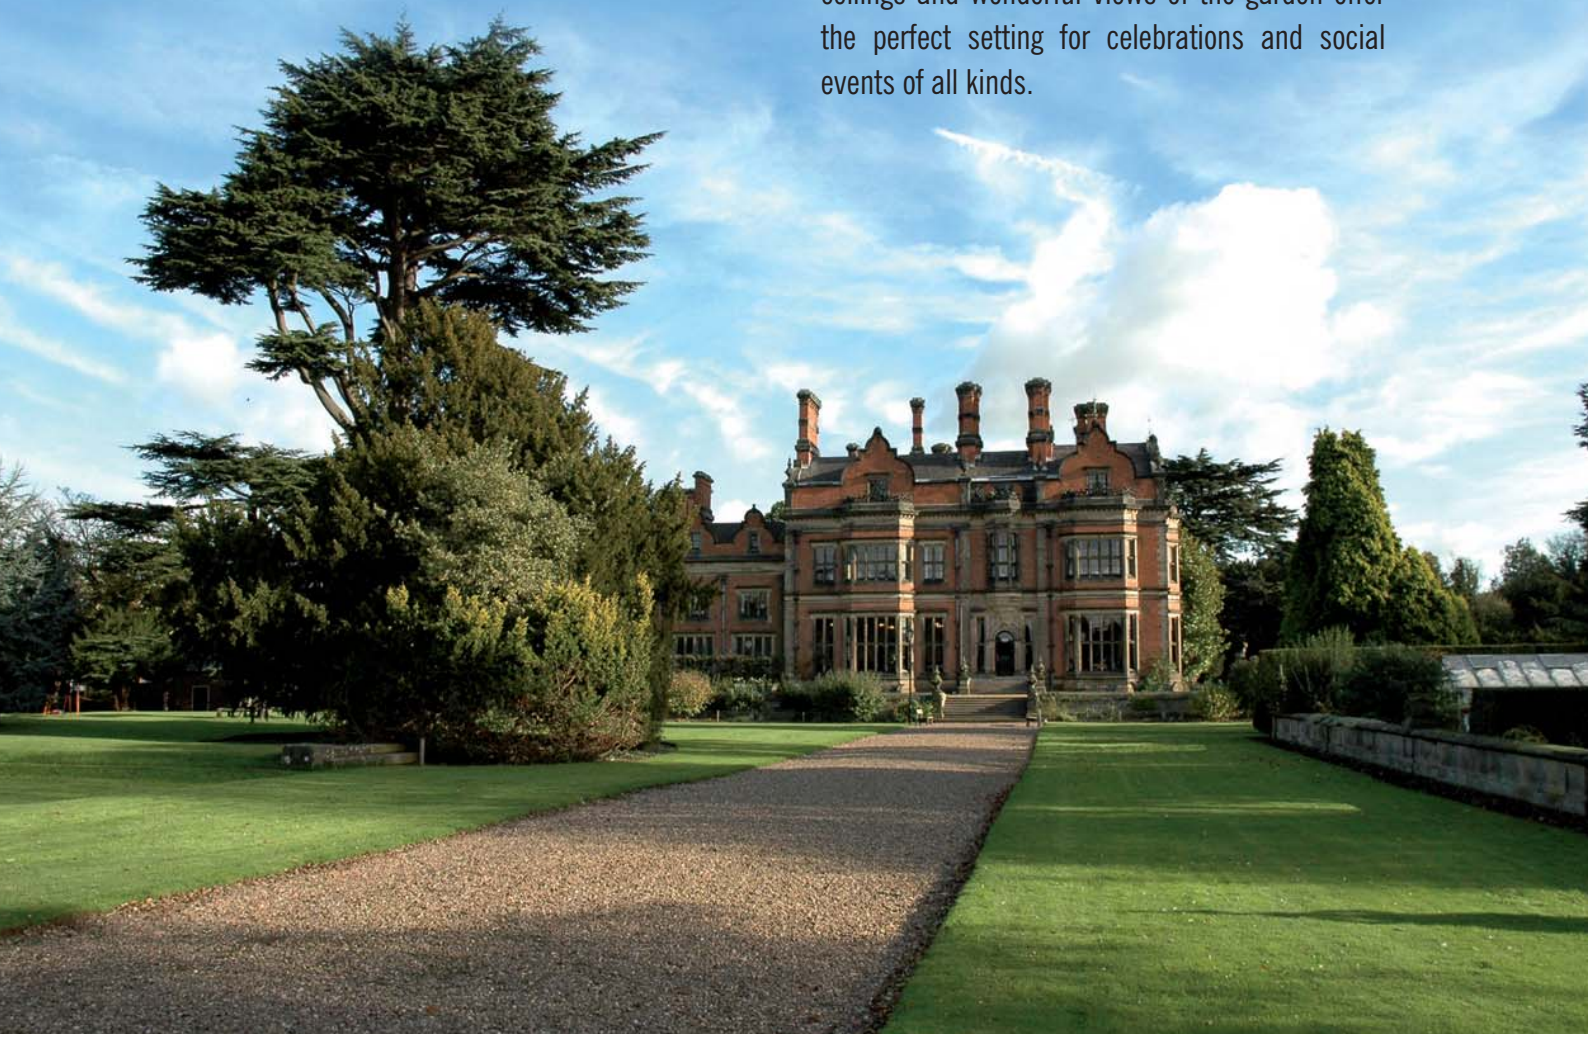

Celebrations

Beaumanor Hall is a wonderful venue situated in thirty acres of beautifully kept park grounds. A formal garden surrounds the Hall with mature specimen trees and flower beds designed to complement the lovely Victorian building.

The Hall and grounds provide the perfect setting for photographs. Guests may wander through the gardens and use the gravelled terrace overlooking the gardens for drinks in the sunshine.

The Hall offers modern day comfort in an elegant period setting, with beautiful high ceilings, masterly carving and elaborate stonework. The breathtaking painted glass window and dramatic split staircase provide the perfect backdrop for photographs, speeches and grand entrances!

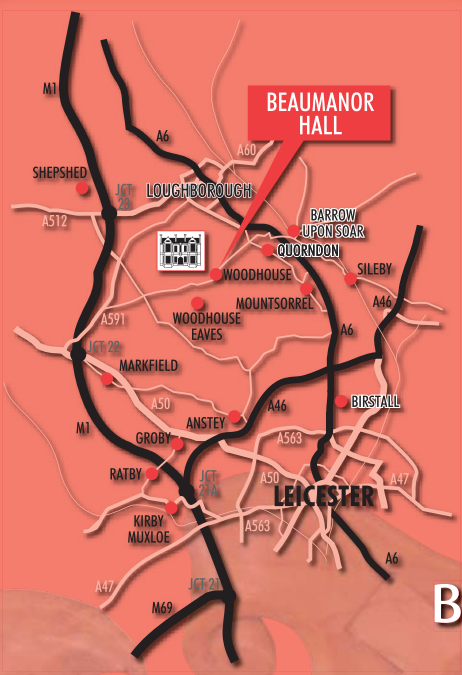

The splendid ground floor rooms with their ornate ceilings and wonderful views of the garden offer the perfect setting for celebrations and social events of all kinds.

Our experienced and professional Catering Team provide an excellent and flexible service, which may be tailored to suit events of all types. We have an assortment of menu options which include a three course, waitress served meal for a minimum of 50 or a maximum of 120 guests, a cold carvery menu for up to 86 guests and an informal finger buffet for up to 180 guests.

We include at no extra charge: bud vases of flowers in the colour scheme of your choice, white linen napkins and table covers, crystal wine glasses and a silver cake stand and knife.

If you are considering Beaumanor Hall as the venue for your special occasion please contact the Bookings Officer at Beaumanor Hall, who will be delighted to discuss your requirements and available dates. You may also arrange an appointment to view the facilities and speak to our friendly and professional staff about what we have to offer to make your special day a magical experience.
