

enjoy the countryside!

Welcome to your FREE
guide to Leicestershire's
beautiful countryside -
it has so much to offer!

Get out into the fresh air, relax and enjoy nature, exercise or try your hand at an environmental conservation task, the choice is yours.

With an excellent network of footpaths, bridleways and cycle routes linking fascinating villages, historic sites and country parks plus landscapes which vary from the granite hills of Charnwood Forest, the peaceful valleys and canals, the rolling countryside of eastern Leicestershire to the growing woodlands of the National Forest, Leicestershire's countryside has it all!

Inside this guide you'll find details of country parks to visit plus walking and cycling routes in the countryside or alongside the County's waterways.

More information is available from www.leics.gov.uk/countryside or by using the contacts listed in this guide. For details of countryside events and activities pick up a copy of the FREE Leicestershire Events Guide – see back page for details.
