LEICESTERSHIRE MUSEUMS ARCHAEOLOGICAL FIELDWORK GROUP

Leicestershire Museums Archaeological Fieldwork Group has, since 1976, undertaken through its local Groups, an award-winning programme of active archaeological fieldwork throughout Leicestershire. The Group, in conjunction with Leicestershire County Council Museums Service archaeologists, holds regular lecture meetings, has its own Newsletter, "The Fieldworker" and provides training courses for beginners.

The Group also supports the work of archaeologists in both the City and County Museums Services, including the events programme at Jewry Wall Museum and Donington le Heath Manor House.

If you would like to join please send the annual subscription, with the slip below, £3(unwaged), £5 (waged), £5 (unwaged family) or £8 (family membership) to:
