

LEICESTERSHIRE FIELDWORKERS

APPLICATION FORM

LEICESTERSHIRE FIELDWORKERS

Leicestershire Fieldworkers (Leicestershire Museums Archaeological Fieldwork Group) are the Group for everyone with an active interest in Leicestershire archaeology. It has, since 1976, undertaken through its local Groups, an award-winning programme of active archaeological fieldwork throughout Leicestershire. The Group holds regular lecture meetings, has its own Newsletter, "The Fieldworker", and provides training courses for beginners, as well as holding conferences and producing publications. The Fieldworkers work closely with Leicestershire County Council's Community Archaeologist and feed information into the Historic Environment Record.

If you would like to join, please send the annual subscription, with the slip below, £4 (unwaged), £6 (waged), £6 (unwaged household) or £10 (household membership) to the address below:
