

JOINT AREA REVIEW

Partnership Working; Improving Children and Young People's Services

The recent assessment of local children and young people's services found that Leicestershire's work with children and young people who are looked after was good with;

- Strongly developed and effective preventative services
- High quality care from well trained and supported foster carers
- Good quality multi-agency care planning and review
- Increasing education attainment. 59.3% looked after children gaining at least 5 A* to G grades at GCSE compared to 41.4% nationally
