

Ten Ways of Using the Case Studies

- To see what is happening in other schools in Leicestershire.
- To inform your planning and teaching.
- To use at a dept meeting or INSET session to develop practice.
- To use with other colleagues across the curriculum to extend literacy.
- To give ideas for new texts / materials / schemes of work to use.
- To use with SMT.
- To use with pupils as examples of different kinds of work.
- To use as a model to create own or dept case studies.
- To use with NQTs, supply teachers or non-specialists.
